SKU Tags

Every item in the Leader's Holding Company™ inventory has a SKU (Stock Keeping Unit) Tag. There are two different kinds of SKU tags, serialized merchandise and bulk merchandise.
Table of Contents

Serialized SKU Tag

Old SKU Tag: 2000 to 2019

New SKU Tag: 2019 to Current

1. Description: A brief description of the item (Note: "Fr Only", this item is frame only. Cushions are not included in this serial number therefore the cost of cushions is not included in the price of this item.)

2. SKU#: A unique combination of letters and numbers made up of up to 4 descriptors to identify a product. All SKU numbers will be in the following format. Vendor-Frame#, Frame Color, Fabric Color. All vendors will be 4 letter abbreviations.

    • For a detailed break out of the item number format see Leader's Holding Item Numbers later in this section

3. PO#: Purchase order number

4. Serial Number: A unique number that is only used once to identify a piece of merchandise. (Fact: Serial number 1500000 was received to the warehouse 500,000 pieces before serial number 2000000.)

5. Barcode: A unique combination of lines that is original to each serial number which can be electronically read.

6. Receiving Location   The location where the item was received

7. Purchase Order#: A purchase order number will be in this area if the item was special ordered for a customer. The invoice number will reflect the invoice it was special ordered for.

8. Date Received: Date received to the warehouse written backwards (September 2012)

9. Item # of #: Indicates how many same SKU's items were in the shipment and which number this individual serial number is

SKU Example:

TROP-960201,MOA,1742

Bulk SKU Tag Example

1. Item Number A unique combination of letters and number that give an item an identity

2. Price The everyday selling price of an item

The item number printed on a bulk tag is not the complete item number. In this example the complete item number is STOT-1500,250. (Vendor: Stotter Item: 1500 Color: 250)
